Re: Statement with respect to model name change

We, ViVest Medical Technology Co., Ltd. (hereinafter called ViVest), herewith declare that owing to marketing requirements, ViVest initiated a change request to change the series name and product model name of PowerBeat X series Automated External Defibrillator, which does not involve any change of product specifications and/or functions.

- 1) Series name change: PowerBeat X series to A series.
- 2) Model name change: PowerBeat X1 & X3 to A1 and A3.

Except for the product series name and model name, there is no difference between PowerBeat X series and A series. Therefore, any test reports and verification and/or validation results to prove the safety and effectiveness of PowerBeat X series can be applied to A series Automated External Defibrillator.

Yours Sincerely
